11. Consent

Consent for the release of information to professionals and organisations involved in the planning and implementation of rehabilitation

i Complete this section if you apply for a pension from the authorised pension provider.

Under law, the authorised pension provider must investigate your entitlement to vocational rehabilitation when processing your application for disability pension. If you have the right to receive vocational rehabilitation in accordance with the legislation on earnings-related pensions, the pension provider will give you a preliminary decision.

To ensure a smooth and speedy rehabilitation process it is often necessary to share information among professionals and organisations involved in the planning and implementing of the rehabilitation.

When the pension provider investigates your entitlement to vocational rehabilitation, the pension provider has, under law, the right to receive information e.g. from Kela, the employer, doctors or other authorised healthcare professionals, healthcare facilities, organisations implementing rehabilitation or providing social services.

If the release of information in connection with your rehabilitation is not based on legislation, the information can only be released with your consent. Consent is given voluntarily.

You can withdraw your consent by informing the pension provider that is processing your case about this in writing.

I give my consent for the authorised pension provider to release rehabilitation decisions concerning myself and other information concerning the handling of my rehabilitation case.

Information may be released to the following professionals and organisations that participate in the planning and implementation of the rehabilitation:

- my workplace occupational health provider
- doctors or other medical professionals, hospitals and health care centres participating in my care
- rehabilitation institution or service provider
- Kela
- Employment and Economic Development Office
- educational institution or apprenticeship office
- my employer, with the exception that information about my health may not be released
- an employer offering me a work experience placement or job coaching, with the exception that information about my health may not be released

I do not consent to the release of any other information than information whose release is authorised by law.
